Dear Mr. Baeten:

This letter is to request a name change of a street in Fort Wayne. The Northeast Kiwanis Club would like to propose the name of Johnny Appleseed Drive for the street that starts at the old Centlivre Brewery and terminates at Parnell Ave.

This street is presently known as Spy Run Extended. It was originally called Swanson Blvd., Harry Baals Dr., and then Spy Run Extended. With the declaration of the Johnny Appleseed Grave Site as a National Historical Site, it seems appropriate to have this road way serve as a senic route to the Historical Site.

The Northeast Kiwanis has planted some 450 flowering crab apple trees at various places in Fort Wayne during the past 20 years. This is an expenditure of nearly $6000.00 . In addition to this, we have planted the trees, replaced trees, and have pruned the trees that have been planted.

The Northeast Kiwanis would like to concentrate our efforts to plant additional trees along this drive to bring more beauty to the drive and to further develope a historical site in our community.

There are no authorized addresses or access drives to this roadway. The attached statement is submitted for your information.

Your assistance with this request is appreciated.

OBJECTIVES AND MAJOR EMPHASIS PROGRAMS

When the original request for the name change was presented to the City Council, one person stated their address was on Spy Run Extended.

The City Directory in 1952-53 has two homes listed as 3118 Penn Place and 3120 Penn Place. These continues to be listed until the 1965 City Directory. In 1966, 3120 Penn Place is changed to 522 Penn. The 3118 Penn Place is unlisted from this date forward. The occupants of this address are listed prior to 1966 but are unlisted after this date in the City Directory.

Mr. Don Dammeier, of the New Water and Sewage Dept., recalls the situation in regards to this address. The occupant worked for the post office at that time. They were to change the address of 3118 Penn Place to 521 Dalgren. The post master called Mr. Dammeier to request the address be changed to Spy Run Extended. Mr. Dammeier explained that emergency vehicles would have difficulty in finding the Spy Run Extended address as th home had aceess only from Dalgeen. Mr. Dammeier then had a call from Mayor Zeis with the same request. Mayor Zeis agreed with Mr. Dammeier and the matter was dropped.

According th the city telephone books from 1968 to the present, the occupants of 3118 Penn Place have been listed as 3117 Spy Run Extended. This Spy Run Extended address is an unauthorized address.

STAFF REPORT

STREET NAME CHANGE

1. The City Plan Commission heard the request to change SPY RUN AVENUE EXTENDED to JOHNNY APPLESEED MEMORIAL PARKWAY on July 18, 1977.

2. The Site Committee Recommendation on this street name change was DO NOT PASS. The Site Committee recommended the City Utilities Park be changed to JOHNNY APPLESEED MEMORIAL PARK. This motion did not pass.

3. Mr. Simler made a recommendation that the Spy Run Avenue be changed to Johnny Appleseed Drive. This request was approved on July 25, 1977.

4. The City Council, on August 23, 1977, overrode the DO PASS recommendation of the City Plan Commission by a vote of 7 to 1. It appears that a resident who lives on Penn Place testified before City Council, objecting to her Spy Run Avenue Address being changed again.

5. The remonstrator has no private access on Spy Run Avenue Extended. ~~It~~ Spy Run address is not an authorized address and as a result of this misleading address the property owner could be in serious trouble if emergency equipment were requested.
